Memo. No. 224/SPS/CMD/UH & DH/Court Cases
Dated: 11.10.2018.

Subject:- Non-compliance of Court's orders.

It has been observed that the orders/directions of the Hon'ble High Court and various other Courts are not being complied with within the stipulated time frame, as a result of which COCPs are filed/penalties imposed. This not only leads to undue financial loss on account of advocates fees etc., but also puts the management in awkward position due to non-compliance of Hon'ble Court's orders.

2. In view of above, it has been decided that henceforth all court cases wherein speaking orders are to be passed by your office, the same must be passed well before the deadline and in those cases where speaking orders are to be passed by the undersigned, the same may be put up at least 15 days prior to the deadline fixed by the Court. Any difficulty in the implementation of the court order must also be escalated to higher authorities well in time.

3. In case of any delay, the officer concerned shall be held solely responsible and stern action will be initiated against him as per Punishment and Appeal Regulations.
