Subject: Compliance of the orders/directions issued by the Hon'ble Courts in time bound manners.

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to invite your attention to the Government instructions issued vide letter No. 62/76/2002-6GSI, dated 18.11.2002 and all the instructions issued in the matter from time to time on the subject noted above wherein it was stressed that delay in processing the Court cases and also in the implementation of Court orders/judgments should be avoided failing which strict action will be taken against the defaulter for violating these instructions. It was also, interalia, mentioned that in case where it is found that due to Administrative reasons, it is not possible to comply with the directions of the Hon'ble Court within the prescribed period, a formal prayer may be made before the Hon'ble Court for extension of time well in advance.

2. It is observed that despite the issuance of abovesaid categorical instructions/ directions on the subject, some of the departments are not serious in complying with the orders of Hon'ble Court especially in the circumstances where no stay orders have been passed in the appeals filed by the departments. Reluctantly, the Government has to face wrath of the respective Hon'ble Court for not compliance of the orders by the Departments.

- i) In case appeal is filed against the orders of lower Court and no stay has been granted in the appeal by the Court, the department/ organization should comply with the orders of Hon'ble Court after the expiry of the limitation period subject to the outcome of the appeal.
- ii) The Head of Department should monitor the implementation of the orders of Hon'ble Courts every month in the proforma. A register as per proforma (copy enclosed) be maintained which should be signed by the Monitoring Officer.
- iii) Responsibility of the concerned officer must be fixed if there is any negligence or delinquency on the part of the concerned officer(s) in compliance of the orders of the Court.
- iv) The Administrative Secretary should also monitor the progress in this regard from time to time.
