Memo No.Ch-5/SE/C/R-16/372/15

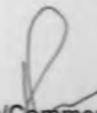

Dated: 25/01/2019

Subject: Mhara Gaon Jag Mag Gaon for Dera / Dhanis on AP feeders having PAT T/F.

Mhara Gaon Jag Mag Gaon scheme was launched to curb theft of power, improving billing efficiency and quality of service to consumers on RDS feeders. Now, it has been decided to extend the said scheme to the consumers residing in Dera / Dhanies connected on PAT enabled AP feeders. The salient features of the scheme are as under:-

- 1) The principal amount of the old arrears if any, will be recovered from the consumers of the Dera / Dhanies in maximum five regular installments alongwith current bills. After payment of the last bill and arrear installment, entire surcharge amount will be waived off.
- 2) Reconnection at defaulter premises shall be allowed after payment of first installment without surcharge of the outstanding bill. Balance outstanding amount will be paid in four installments alongwith next current bills.
- 3) The following loss reduction activities shall be carried out before extending relief to such consumers under the scheme:-
 - i. Replacement of bare conductor with Armored cable.
 - ii. Replacement of defective/electro mechanical meters with healthy electronic meters as a onetime measure, the meter so replaced would not be packed subject to checking from the M&T Lab.
 - iii. Relocation of meters outside the premises on the pole.
 - iv. Proper metering of AP connections being fed from common DT in the Dhani / Dera through electronic meter relocated on the pole.
 - v. Maintenance of LD system
- 4) After the activities listed above are completed, the supply hours to the Dera / Dhanis may be extended as deemed fit through PAT installed on the AP feeder.
- 5) The connections to un-electrified Dhani/Dera existing on PAT enabled AP feeder shall be released as per P&D instructions 2/2018.
- 6) The Energy auditing of common DTs (feeding AP as well as Domestic Consumers) falling on the PAT enabled AP feeders will be carried out regularly and supply hours regulated accordingly.

The above instructions should be brought to the notice of all concerned for careful and meticulous compliance with immediate effect.
