Dated : 11/9/2013

Subject: - One time settlement of defaulting amount alongwith assured power supply to RDS (Rural domestic supply) consumers.

Please refer to Sales Circular No. D-38/2013 vide which subject cited scheme was issued.

In view of feedback from the field offices, the matter has been reviewed by the management and decided as under:-

1. Any rural domestic defaulting consumer who opt for the scheme shall pay the pending bill / arrear as under:-
  - a) The amount of arrear pertaining to the period before 17.06.2005 shall be waived off keeping in view the earlier waiver scheme of 2005.
  - b) The amount of arrear pertaining to the period between 17.06.2005 to 31.03.2013 shall be paid @ 40 units per KW per month @ 298 Paise per unit i.e. (actual declared load in KW without rounding x 40 x No. of Months x 2.98) without FSA and surcharge.
  - c) The pending bill for the period 1/4/2013 to option date shall be paid with surcharge.
2. The above amount (as applicable) shall be paid to SDO/OP concerned in one go along with an undertaking to pay subsequent 5 bimonthly current bills regularly.
3. The benefit of assured power supply shall be considered as an additional feature of the scheme for taking regular supply for 20, 22 & 24 hours, depending upon 80%, 90% & 100% households respectively opting for the scheme and further agreeing to installation of their meters outside the houses as per conditions of Sales Circular No. D-38/2013.

Wide publicity of the scheme shall be made by organizing camps in the villages.

The Sales Circular No. D-38/2013 is amended to this extent only and other terms and conditions of this circular shall remain the same.

The above instructions may be brought to the notice of all concerned for careful and meticulous compliance.
